LOCAL NEWS.

J. T. Day and wife are off on a visit to Mt. Sterling.

Miss Belle Turner, of Mt. Sterling, is visiting friends and relatives in our city.

Miss Emma O'Hair, of Edgar county, Ill., is in our midst visiting her many relatives.

J. Mort Pieratt, the solid mainpring of Hazel, got our town a visit last Sunday, returning home Monday.

Mrs. Rosa Pieratt and sister Clara, in company with several friends, came up from Hazel on the first of the week.

The County Teachers' Institute is in progress at Campton this week, with Rev. J. M. Downing as instructor.

The increased attendance at our Sunday Schools last Sunday, proving that the recent convention has awakened new interest in the work.

Several teachers from our town and our County Superintendent, Hon. J. M. Kash, left on Monday to attend the Institute at Campton.

The postoffice at Daysborough in this county, has been established by the Postoffice Department, and S. C. Alexander appointed postmaster.

Hon. Jack Hendrie, of Flemingsburg, Ky., and E. M. Leman and C. A. Thayer, of Michigan, were registered at the Day House last Saturday night.

Rev. D. H. Fallon preached to large audiences in the Christian Church at this place last Saturday evening, and Lord's Day morning and evening.

S. K. Ford with August, Bernheim & Bauer, of New York, and R. F. Williams with H. L. Crane & Co. of Cincinnati, were guests of the Pieratt House Monday.

Bob Bean denies the recent report in the Mt. Sterling papers that he had made the big speculation and profits in Wichita, Kansas, and says he never authorized the assertion.

Wm. Miller, of Madison county, who has been sojourning in our midst for his health, was recalled to his home last week. Mr. Miller made many friends in our town during his stay.

Charley Shively, John Ford and Mose Ford, Cincinnati; W. H. Thompson, East Bernstadt; J. D. Telford, Salem, Ill., and E. S. Dean, Mt. Sterling, were registered at the Pieratt Monday night.

We want it thoroughly understood that THE HERALD boomed the Sunday School Convention, and then the convention boomed us. There is nothing like a good live paper in a town to boom things.

Mrs. Anna Wills, of Powell county, and mother of Ray Wills, of the Cox Mill neighborhood, is not expected to live. She has been suffering with an abscess in her stomach for about four months.

Rev. Harry G. Henderson, of Georgetown, Ky., will preach at the M. E. Church in this place on the 25th or 27th inst. Mr. Henderson has a State reputation, and will doubtless attract quite a large audience.

Prof. J. A. Cox, who attended the Hazel Green High School for several terms, has been employed to teach the common school at Irvine, in Pettit county. He will leave in August to take charge of the trust.

Capt. T. J. Henry, Clerk of the Court of Appeals, was married last Sunday evening at West Liberty, to Mrs. Kate Cockrell, daughter of Hon. J. T. Hazelrigg, Rev. J. M. Downing, of the Christian Church officiating.

Lam Williams, the Independent candidate for Jailer of this county, called in and subscribed to THE HERALD last week. He was asked about his canvass, and said he felt sanguine of success. He impressed us as quite a nice gentleman.

A boy of West Liberty beauties, consisting of eight young ladies, accompanied by seven gallants from the same "City of the Licking," dashed into town on Sunday and registered at the Pieratt House, returning the same evening.

Judge D. B. Garrison, the heavy weight of Mt. Sterling, accompanied by Dayton, Jr., is registered at the Pieratt, and hopes that pure air and rest will soon bring him up to his fighting weight. 102 pounds, that being the notch where Billy Mize tips the beam.

Mrs. Nannie Kash, near town, sent us a basket of delicious apples one day last week, for which we will place accept our thanks, and remember that the latch string of our door is always open to her and ladies like her who may be laden with precious gifts for the editor.

Mrs. Fred Day of this place will please accept our thanks for a basket of very fine cucumbers sent us last week, and her little daughter Minnie, a child fair to look upon, will accept thanks for the greatest vegetable curiosity yet brought in. It consisted of seven cucumbers on one stem, three of them grown together.

To the Voters of Wolfe County.

FELLOW CITIZENS: As the regular nominee of the Democratic party for Jailer of Wolfe County, I expect to easily secure my election at the polls in August. Recently there has entered the race one of my townsmen, whom I know to be a clever gentleman, though unfortunately he has not been selected by any regular party to make the race, and says he is running as an independent. He ought to run with the party as a nominee to which he belongs, to wit, Republican, and be candid enough to be open in the race. Trusting that my friends will be vigilant and not be led astray in this matter, I am, very respectfully,
GEO. W. DRAKE.

Board of Health.

In compliance with an act of the Legislature, approved March 16th, 1886, establishing a State Board of Health to provide for local boards of health and a superintendent of vital statistics, the physicians of Hazel Green, met on July 9th, 1886. Dr. J. M. Kash was elected president, Dr. J. B. Taulbee physician, and Dr. E. B. Gardner assistant physician. The purpose of this county. After discussing many things of importance relative to the duties of the officers of said board of health, the meeting adjourned to meet at Hazel Green the first Saturday in each month at 9 o'clock A. M. R. H. GARDNER, Chairman.
J. M. KASH, Secretary.

The County Sunday School Convention which closed here last Thursday night was a glorious success. The meetings both day and night were well attended, and the greatest enthusiasm manifested by every one. All the various denominations were represented, and each delegation showed an active, earnest interest in the work. It is a happy indication when the whole people take an interest in the education of the young, but it is more pleasing when that interest is manifested in the moral and religious training of the children. The convention was conducted by Rev. H. L. Nave, of Mt. Sterling, and we are sure will prove a valuable stimulus in the work in the future.

There was considerable stock here at the regular sale last Wednesday, but owing to the depression in money matters and the dull market at Mt. Sterling, there was not as much sold on that occasion as at the June sale. Considering all things, however, the sales were very satisfactory, and the people find Hazel Green the best market in the mountains. The sales and the prices are always bona fide and not "make believe." Transactions resorted to for the purpose of attracting a crowd. There is now an upward tendency in the price of stock, and our August sale, which comes off on the 11th, will be a hummer. Commence now and get your stock ready for that occasion.

A letter was received at this office last Wednesday night from a correspondent of THE HERALD at Jewellville, in Lee county, which was mailed at that place on the 5th inst., having been on the road nine days. Of course, to have published in this issue, would have been putting off old news upon our readers, and yet the correspondent nor the paper is to blame. It is the result of the inefficiency of the mail service in the mountains, and the Postoffice Department should remedy the evil. In the meantime, our Lee county correspondents should direct their letters by way of Jackson. The distance from Jewellville to Hazel Green is only 35 miles.

At Beattyville laborers are receiving 15 cents an hour, or from $1.50 to $1.80 per day; common carpenters command 20 cents an hour, or from $2 to $2.40 per day, and best carpenters get 25 cents an hour for 10 or 12 hours a day, as they may elect. Here is a chance for some of our idle men to secure a snug sum of clear cash ere the winter frosts come again, and they should avail themselves of it at once.

The Annual State Meeting of the Kentucky Christian Missionary Society will be held in Mt. Sterling on Thursday Aug. 3rd, and will continue three or four days. A large delegation is expected from the Christian Church all over the mountains. We trust Wolfe county will be well represented. Ample arrangements will be made for the entertainment of visitors.

When the organs of secretion become inactive by reason of a cold or other cause, the inflammatory material should be removed and healthy action restored. Ayer's Pills accomplish this quickly, safely, and surely. Much serious sickness and suffering might be prevented by promptly correcting such derangements which often develop into settled disease.

Hon. James P. Marrs, of Letcher county candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney in this district, spoke to a large audience in our town last Wednesday. He is a gentleman of fine appearance, good morals and thoroughly qualified. Although a stranger to our people, he made a fine impression, and will fully receive the Democratic vote of our citizens.

David Morse, of this place, last week caught a string of beautiful fish, including a 13-inch bass, several smaller ones, some nice red-eys, chubs and sun-perch. He is the boss fisherman in these parts. In recent fishing match with Dr. Kash and John Nickell, he beat the two of them, and is now claiming the championship belt.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

WOLFE COUNTY HOLDS A LARGE AND ENTHUSIASTIC CONVENTION.

And Accomplishes Much Good for the Cause.—Full Minutes of the Meeting.

The Wolfe County Sunday School Convention met in Hazel Green, Ky., at the Christian Church, on Thursday July 15th, 1886, at 9 o'clock A. M. Services opened with song and prayers, after which Rev. H. L. Nave called the convention to order and announced its object.

On motion of Rev. J. R. Kendall, Rev. H. L. Nave was elected as chairman, and on motion of Spencer Cooper, W. O. Mize was elected secretary.

Committees on programme and reception reported and were discharged.

The Chair then appointed a committee on nominations, consisting of J. T. Pieratt, J. B. Taulbee and A. J. Wood, which committee was requested to report at the afternoon session.

H. C. Herndon, vice-president, presented and read the reports of the various Sunday Schools in the county, which were commented upon by the various delegates, in addition to written reports.

Rev. Mr. Nave followed with a full, complete and highly instructive address, subject, "The Sunday School Work," which closed the exercise of the morning session.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The convention met at 2 P. M., and the session opened with devotional exercises. The first thing in the order of business was the report of the committee on nominations, which through its chairman Dr. J. B. Taulbee, was made and adopted.

We, the committee on nominations desire to submit the following report:

As permanent president of Wolfe county we place in nomination the name of S. S. Combs, of Campton, for permanent president, the name of H. C. Herndon, of Hazel Green, for secretary and treasurer, W. O. Mize, of Hazel Green. The following are the names for vice-presidents in their several precincts: Campton, Isaac Elkins; Red River, Allison Ross; Stillwater, Robert Cecil; Holly, Jonathan Elkins; Antioch, James K. Cochran; Devils Creek, William Bush; Hazel Green, Jack Wood, with the favorable recommendation that they be confirmed by election to the respective offices.

J. B. TAULBEE, Chairman.

The following subjects were then discussed: "The Necessity of the Work," by Revs. J. R. Kendall and J. T. Pieratt; "Teaching the Lesson," by J. M. Kash and Dr. Taulbee; "The Duty of Parents," by W. O. Mize; "The Superintendents," by Revs. Isaac Murphy and J. T. Gevedon. This ended the afternoon session.

The convention met at 9:30 o'clock, with devotional exercises.

Delegates to represent this county in the State Sunday School Convention, which is to meet at Frankfort, August 17-19, 1886, were then appointed, consisting of S. S. Combs, J. B. Taulbee, Spencer Cooper and W. O. Mize.

Upon motion it was ordered that in addition to the delegates elected, all persons from Wolfe county who desire to attend said convention, be appointed as delegates.

An essay, subject—"The Relation of Christian Women to the Sunday School," by Mrs. Spencer Cooper, and read by her husband as proxy.

Address, subject—"The Relation of the Children to the Church and Sunday School," by S. S. Combs.

Collections for the State Sunday School Union, $2.47.

Address, "Earnestness in Sunday School Work," by Judge D. B. Garrison, of Mt. Sterling.

The hour for adjournment having nearly arrived, W. O. Mize offered the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted, to wit:

Resolved, That the thanks of this convention are hereby tendered to THE HAZEL GREEN HERALD for the highly appreciated and free publications so kindly given through its columns in regard to this Sunday School Convention. Also,

Resolved, That as Christian workers, we appreciate the visit and the earnest work of Rev. H. L. Nave, and to him and his co-workers thanks for the labor and good accomplished in the organization of Sunday School work in this county. And be it further

Resolved, That to the Kentucky Sunday School Union, which has been promulgated by Providence to reach out into the mountains of Eastern Kentucky, we are deeply grateful for this its first visit among us, and we implore the Christian community to hold to ease not until the work has been accomplished from Pound Gap to the Pikes, and from the mouth of the Big Sandy to the Tennessee line.

And then the convention adjourned, and after singing the doxology the benediction was pronounced by Rev. J. R. Kendall, and the audience dismissed.

NOTES.

Rev. J. R. Kendall's address on "The Necessity of the Work," was energetic and able.

Rev. J. T. Pieratt, one of our most successful preachers, showed by his earnest address that he was also convinced of "The Necessity of the Work."

Hon. J. M. Kash knows how to teach from long experience, and can tell what he knows.

Hon. W. O. Mize, one of the most graceful speakers in the mountains, who acted as secretary, addressed the convention in a usually happy vein on the duty of parents.

S. S. Combs, founder and Superintendent of the Campton Sunday School, delivered a very sensible and instructive address on the relation of the children to the Sunday School.

We have heard a great deal of favorable comment on Uncle Ike Murphy's speech. He told of some actual experience in the Sunday School which was highly appreciated.

J. T. Gevedon followed Uncle Ike with some additional wholesome advice to teachers.

Judge Garrison, late of the Sentinel-Democrat, was present, and being called upon, responded with some appropriate remarks on "Earnestness in Sunday School work," interspersed with some anecdotes which we know were appreciated as we have heard them repeated.

The number of schools reporting at the convention was 8, with 50 officers and teachers and 460 scholars. This is a good showing for Wolfe county.

Rev. J. T. Pieratt and wife, of this place, are visiting their daughter Mrs. J. G. Thomas, of Lee county.

Will buy Wool, Genseng, Rags, Hides, &c. S. S. GAITSKILL, Mt. Sterling.

J. T. & F. Day are selling Salt at $2.50 per barrel; retail at 50 cents per bushel.

The Mitchell Wagon for sale at S. S. GAITSKILL'S, Mt. Sterling.

MORGAN COUNTY.

WEST LIBERTY, July 19.—Married, at the Christian Church, on Sunday, July 18, Capt. T. J. Henry to Mrs. Kate Cockrell, Rev. J. M. Downing officiating. For some time Madam Rump has been predicting the union of this couple, and when they stood at the altar on Sunday evening, these predictions proved true. The Captain is a genial, accommodating, whole-souled gentleman, and has a host of friends in this town, while the bride is a personification of beauty and loveliness. We wish them all the happiness this earth affords.

Your correspondent, in company with Dr. A. B. Nickell, wife and daughter, Miss Belle, and son Volney, and Miss Anna Kendall, the pleasure of spending a few days in Martinsburg, enjoying the hospitality of our relatives, Dr. Williams and family. We returned home yesterday evening, well pleased with our first visit to Elliott.

Miss Ella Kendall, Minnie Ward, Lula Kendall, Lizzie Platon, Nora Handiger and Lula Phillips, in company with some young gentlemen of this and other places, paid a flying visit to Hazel Green Sunday.

Dr. A. B. Nickell and wife and son Volney are visiting Mrs. E. C. Kendall, of this place.

Miss Ella Cottle, of Martinsburg, after a protracted visit to our city, returned home Thursday.

W. M. Kendall is visiting relatives in Martinsburg. CHICKET.

CANEY, July 12.—A Sunday School was organized here last Sunday, with R. L. Hurd superintendent, and J. P. Morris as assistant superintendent; Wm. T. Lykins secretary, and T. J. Burton assistant secretary.

We hope it may prove a success, as such an increase of good doers to civilization. Joe C. Lykins and daughter of Campton, are here. Miss Lykins will begin school here on the 13th inst. We are glad to welcome her to our midst, and predict a successful school, as she comes well recommended.

Wm. A. Burton & Bro., have sold one of their stores at this place to C. F. Hart, late of Elliottville, Ky.

LEE COUNTY.

BEATTYVILLE, July 8.—Your correspondent makes this, a first effort to furnish news to the readers of THE HERALD, who are weary of backwardness and awkwardness from the fact that he is a novice in newspaper correspondence. Our town, as is well known to most of your readers, is situated at the junction of the North and South forks of the Kentucky River, and is in process of construction the notable dam, for which an appropriation was made by Congress. Already many thousands of dollars have been expended in our county for timber and labor, and the work is going on rapidly. Beattyville has the appearance of being alive and up to her eyes in business. The heavy thud of the pile driver and the clatter of machinery for their work, and there is activity near by. Recently the town board of trustees has been reorganized, a police judge and marshal have been chosen, and law and order prevail. The boys reluctantly pay for their boisterous revelings and return to their homes wiser and sadder. The boarding houses are full and people generally busy; and in Proctor one sees evidence of progress and increasing activity of business. The whirling wheels and buzzing saw at the large steam mill of Glass & Co., now under the management of Judge Flannery, proclaim to the passerby that the Judge is gathering in the shekels by cutting an immense quantity of lumber for the dam.

Elder J. B. Jones, of Carlisle, of the Christian Church, is holding a protracted meeting at the Court House, and is attracting good audiences. He is an educated, large-brained, good man. His sermons are deep and learned, and the work that he is doing must result in good. He is winning our hearts by his earnest, good work, and when he shall have gone our love shall follow him.

Mrs. Joanna Hargis, of Beattyville, was on a visit to her relatives of this place a part of the recent and last week. She is the wife of A. H. Hargis, a prominent merchant of Beattyville county, and is an interesting and lovable woman.

Sam J. Salzer, of West Liberty, has been here on a visit. He stopped at the Hill Hotel, we think enjoyed himself very much. He wore a pleasant smile and talked volubly and interestingly.

Your correspondent takes occasion to express his appreciation of the carving knife and fork given by THE HERALD as a present. THE HERALD deserves patronage, and we heartily recommend it.

RATTLE TRAP.

SALYERSVILLE, July 15.—The election of county officers is exciting the people in this county very much, and if the candidates that field all run on, there will be a great many defeated when the vote is counted in August. W. L. May is the Republican candidate for Common School Superintendent, and is a hard worker for the advancement of education. He has been Superintendent heretofore, and discharged the duties of the office as well as any man ever did in this county.

Benjamin Vanderpool killed a copperhead on the 13th inst., which on examination was found to have four upper teeth. He has killed a great many, and he says this one was the best prepared to do mischief, and he was glad to get it. We hope he will continue in the good work.

Crittenden Back will teach school at the Power's school house in District No. 2. He has been attending college at Richmond, Ky., and is well qualified to teach. Education is much needed in this vicinity, and we hope he will have success.

Flax is raging among the people in this section, and is likely to produce some very difficult cases to cure.

The State Teachers' Institute will begin at this place Tuesday, July 20th, and continue three weeks.

Died—On the 9th inst., Mary Bell Axtier, CHICK.

WOLFE COUNTY.

GILMORE, July 9.—The election is drawing near, and candidates are beginning to look around to see who will vote for them. James H. Vest, (Democrat) of this place, is a candidate for Justice of the Peace in this, the Hazel Green District. Having been badly treated in the last election four years ago, he now desires a fair show and does not wish to be elected on a party ticket by any one, and if elected promises to make you as good a Justice of the Peace as the district has had for many years.

James D. Graham, who has been visiting in this vicinity for ten days, has started for his home in Lee county, Va.

Joseph Graham and Jerry Combs, who were taken to Covington sometime since, have returned home all O. K.

Corn crops are beginning to come out and are looking well since the recent rains.

The fruit crop is very light this year in this vicinity, and there will be very little if any brandy made.

There will be a good chestnut mast this year, if there be any sign in a heavy bloom. UNCLE REMUS.

Prepared to Teach Institutes!

Prof. A. SANDERS, of Booneville Academy, Booneville, Ky., announces that he is prepared to TEACH INSTITUTES during the months of July and August, and will guarantee satisfaction in every instance. The Montgomery county institute of 1885, says of him: "We tender Prof. Sanders our sincere thanks for the earnest manner in which he has labored for our instruction and express our approbation of the efficient manner in which he has conducted the exercises."

Charges reasonable, and made known on application. Address, PROF. A. SANDERS, Booneville, Owsley County, Ky.
